CATALYSE

Catalysing scientific innovation into food safety action

Join the CATALYSE Community of Practice!

CATALYSE is a Horizon Europe project aiming to promote the implementation of new innovative solutions for food safety to solve the real needs of end-users in the food supply chain.

We invite you to join the CATALYSE Community of Practice (CoP), which is a unique online platform where all food actors (innovators, regulators, academics, businesses, and non-profits) can collaborate for a safer future.
